VOL. VI., NO. 31
April 20, 1977

WELL KNOWN MIME TO PERFORM

Claud Kipnis, a world famous mime who is appearing at the Lisner Auditorium this Friday evening, April 22, will visit Kendall Green Friday afternoon from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. and perform for us. He will perform outside the Student Union Building but, if it is raining, the performance will be held in the Hughes Gymnasium. Admission is FREE and everyone is invited to attend.

DR. RAWLEY SILVER TO LECTURE

There will be a Graduate School Colloquium on Friday, April 29 from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. in HMB 213. Dr. Rawley Silver, developer of the "Shout in Silence" exhibit, will give a lecture/slide presentation. An opening reception will be held Thursday, April 28, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the library lounge. Dr. Silver is being sponsored by several groups on campus and everyone is encouraged to attend both the Colloquium and the opening reception. Mark your calendar.

PLAY TO BE INTERPRETED

The Folger Theatre is presenting an interpreted performance of its current production, "Black Elk Speaks," on Saturday, April 23, at 2:30 p.m. If there is a good-sized crowd at the presentation the Folger will plan other interpreted performances of plays, perhaps on a regular basis. Tickets are $3.50 each. Contact Trent Batson in the English Dept. either by voice, ext. 336, or TTY, ext. 560, for more information.

AMONG OURSELVES

---While in California to chair the site evaluation team for the teachers preparation program of California State University at Fresno, Dr. Davila visited San Diego, his hometown, and spoke at a meeting of the San Diego public school system teachers of the hearing-impaired about Pre-College Programs.

---Dr. Hicks was in Atlanta from April 12 to 15 for the convention of the Council of Exceptional Children.

---Dr. Varrieur of the Cooperative Education Program, spoke at the Henderson House in Weston, Massachusetts, on April 6 and 7. The topic of his discussion was, "Cooperative Education and the Handicapped-How it is Implemented."

---Janet Bailey was in New York this recent Monday to interpret for a T.V. commercial. In the near future, Janet will be seen interpreting an Ex-Lax commercial.
